Subject: Petition No 0483/2025

Dear Mr Pawlak,

Thank you for submitting your petition to the European Parliament, which the Committee on Petitions has now examined.

Unfortunately, I must inform you that we are unable to pursue your petition any further. Your petition was declared inadmissible¹ by the Committee on Petitions on 15/05/2025, because it is not formulated in such a way as to establish a clear link to the European Union's fields of activity.

Although we are unable to take your petition further², I would like to thank you for exercising your right to petition.

Yours sincerely,

Bogdan Rzońca
Chair
Committee on Petitions

¹Article 227 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union states: 'Any citizen of the Union, and any natural or legal person residing or having its registered office in a Member State, shall have the right to address, individually or in association with other citizens or persons, a petition to the European Parliament on a matter which comes within the Union's fields of activity and which affects him, her or it directly'.

²Your petition will now be filed in accordance with Article 232(11) of our Rules of Procedure: 'Petitions declared inadmissible by the committee shall be filed; the petitioner shall be informed of the decision and the reasons for it. Where possible, alternative means of redress may be recommended'.
